Title: Isk's Will

Author: Isk

---

I have managed to accumulate a small fortune during my time in this realm. I suppose that is the way of humans, to gather physical wealth in order to feel more important. As I am dead I have no further need for these items of luxury. In order to prevent myself from rewarding sloth I have placed conditions to most of my generosity.

On the treatment of my body:

My body is to be cremated with the exception of my heart and head which are to be removed beforehand.
Immediately upon my death with no witnesses outside those of the Hand of Humanis my remains are to be burned and gathered into an urn.

I proclaim Rufus Oryan as the executor of my will.
He will oversee the execution of this document in accordance to my wishes.

All conditions which require research and presentation are to be made in book form and are to be delivered to

Rufus Oryan in person unless stated otherwise.
Rewards will be given up to four days after conditions are finished.

-To the first group to establish a Humanis Lodge on the main continent I leave my heart as a relic.

-I leave 500 diamonds to the first person to map the stars surrounding the Malas facet. I leave an additional 50,000 gold if a working Zodiac is created.

-To the first person to map the stars surrounding the Trammel facet I leave 500 diamonds. I leave an

a working Zodiac is
created.

-The first person that presents evidence which suggests Daemons are not a race but instead are a mass of magical energy I leave my collection of books on demonology which I gathered after my first brush with death.

-I leave my small library to Mark Randerstill. May you use the knowledge well.

-To Lady LaBelle, a great lover of literature, I leave my personal poetry book. I hope you do not find it too dark.

-I leave my ultra rare limited edition Isk card to the first human child that asks for it.

-To whoever reclaims my original porcelain mask marked by "Lord Krell" from the clutches of Dealthagar and returns it to Rufus Oryan I leave the sum of 100,000 gold.

-To Piroteus, should you ever return. I leave to you my decapitated head, may it quench your curiosity.

-To the first group to perform Virtue: The Play' in a public theatre to a crowd of at least twenty spectators I leave the sum of 1,000,000 gold as well as my infinite thanks. I tried and failed.

-To Huma Dragonbane I leave the Guide to Power' trilogy.

-I leave my ashes to Cid for safe keeping.

-I leave the sum of 50,000 gold to the first person or group to prove the existence of a link between elven speech patterns and the slithers and hisses of snakes.

-To the first person that can make Huma Dragonbane laugh till he cries I leave my gag item Egg Sac' I know there is a joke in there somewhere. We cant be serious all the time Huma.

-To whoever is first to execute the horseman known as Pestilence and deliver his jawbone to Rufus Oryan or any Humanis authority I give 50,000 gold.

can trace his or her lineage back to Lord British, the Stranger or Mondain and presents evidence to Humanis authorities I leave 50,000 gold.

-I leave a golden Lich statue to the first team to win a bagball game.
The conditions are that the teams are to have at least three members each and that the game is to be held publically on the Bagball arena in Malas.

-I leave my books on Philosophy to Rufus
Oryan.
